

Aperto and Tranzeo Selected For $2.6M Broadband Wireless Access Equipment By Tier 1 Operator In India Deliveries Begin Immediately

PITT MEADOWS, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwire - Feb. 8, 2011) - Aperto Networks, a wholly owned subsidiary of BC-based Tranzeo Wireless Technologies Inc. (TSX:TZT), has been selected to deliver a complete broadband wireless network solution by one of India's largest telecommunications service providers. This is the second Tier 1 operator that has selected Aperto and Tranzeo in the last few months. Initial shipments are expected to begin in Q1 and continue throughout 2011.

The Tier 1 operator plans to deploy a nation-wide network in over 200 cities serving enterprise customers running mission critical applications. The first phase of the project will be installed in two of India's largest regions.

"We are extremely pleased to be working with two of the largest operators in India," said James Tocher, President and CEO of Tranzeo. "Our WiMAX and WiFi product lines are an excellent cost effective solution for network expansion in India. We expect to win many more programs in India over the coming months."
