

Private/ virtual networks

Deliberant AP supports virtual radios (VSSID) and VLANs, this lets create several virtual networks on the one physical equipment. This is very effective solution because it requires less equipment, less installation and maintenance and provides internet to several types of users at the same time. For example, at hospital one SSID is dedicated for employees, other SSID – for patients and guests. Both networks are isolated though use the same physical resources.

